

Who we service at Five Sandoval Indian Pueblos:

Five Sandoval Indian Pueblo, Inc. (FSIP) is one of the oldest Native American non-profit organizations in New Mexico serving the 5 tribal communities of Cochiti, Jemez, Sandia, Santa Ana, and Zia Pueblo's. FSIP also serves other communities such as: Santo Domingo, San Felipe, Isleta, Albuquerque, Algodones, Belen, Bernalillo, Bosque Farms, Canon, Cochiti Lake, Gilman, Jemez Springs, Los Chaves, Los Lunas, Pena Blanca, Peralta, Ponderosa, Rio Rancho, San Ysidro, and Sile in Sandoval.

FSIP programs are administered in the four important areas of community health, human services, employment and education.

MISSION

Our mission is to provide the best quality care in such a manner that the value of tribal sovereignty, traditional culture and community integrity are respected and preserved.

VISION

We envision a healthy and flourishing community of individuals and families in Sandoval County and its surrounding areas.

More Information :

Five Sandoval Indian Pueblos, Inc.

4321B Fulcrum Way NE
Rio Rancho, NM 87144

Office: (505) 867-3351

Fax: (505) 867-3514

www.fsipinc.org

Please do not hesitate to call us for support.

CASE MANAGEMENT

SERVICES

As an organization Five Sandoval Indian Pueblos strives to:

- Be a source of strength.
- Use your culture and traditions for healing.
- Support your individual needs.
- Provide a safe, supportive environment for our Pueblo tribal members and surrounding communities.

What can a FSIP Behavioral Health Case Manager do for you?

Behavioral Health Case Managers work with clients directly and with family members, close friends, community members and other health care workers to provide outreach and supportive services.

DO YOU NEED HELP WITH:

- FOOD
- OBTAINING DOCUMENTS
- MEDICAL
- MENTAL WELLNESS

Some of these services include:

- Assessing needs for help among your activities of daily life.
- Listening to concerns and providing consultation and interventions as needed.
- Provide referrals for access to agencies such as drug & alcohol treatment facilities.

Referral Sources:

- Self-Referral
- Tribal Courts
- Medical Providers
- Social Services
- Surrounding Communities

If you are in need of any of our services, or would like more information, please contact a case manager directly.

◇ Dana Hanna, Case Manager
Coordinator

Phone: (505) 350-6731

Email: dhanna@fsipinc.org

◇ Estevan Sando, Case Manager

Phone: (505) 917-6980

Email: esando@fsipinc.org

◇ Vernon Kaiyou, Case Manager

Phone: (505) 239-0847

Email: vkaiyou@fsipinc.org